

Crowd Notice- Photo, Audio and Video Recording Release

You are entering an event area where photography, audio and video recording will occur. By entering the event premises, you are consenting the use of photography, audio, and video recording of yourself and/or any minors or dependents accompanying you, without any compensation. You further consent that images of you and/or accompanying minors and dependents may be used in any and all City printed materials, video materials, website, social media, press release, and/or any other means of marketing material for the City of San Gabriel. Images, photos, videos and/or interviews can be used to promote future City of San Gabriel events. By entering the event area, you waive all rights you may have to any claims for payment or royalties, along with waiving your right to inspect or approve any materials.